ANNUAL BELTON FAIR WAS HELD YESTERDAY

ATTENDANCE SMALL BECAUSE OF THEATEN WEATHER

PREMIUM LIST

Was One of Best Ever Offered As Was Also the Various Kinds of Exhibits.

Owing to the bad weather yesterday the annual Belton fair was not near so largely attended as has been the case for the past five years, but the affair was a great success nevertheless, and many people were there to enjoy the day. Several light showers fell yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon there was a regular downpour, which for a time stopped everything outdoors. The football game between the Clemson scrubs and the Newberry eleven was postponed indefinitely.

The exhibits as a whole were a great deal better than they have ever been. Although the agricultural exhibit was some smaller than it was last year, this was made up in the quality. The baby show was one of the chief attractions and there were numerous entries.

The floral department was one of the most attractive. This was located in the office of the Belton Journal and was indeed a credit to the ladies who contributed to it. Prizes were awarded for the best group and for the best single plants of flowers. The fancy work department created much comment and was indeed worthy of much consideration. Beautiful displays of handwork were exhibited.

The domestic science display was one of the best and of course the most tempting of the day. This was well arranged and clearly showed that Anderson county has some ladies who are trained in domestic science.

Miss Jayne C. Garlington had a very creditable and elaborate display from the canning clubs. It would certainly be a treat if every woman in Anderson county could see the canned fruits and vegetables which Miss Garlington has collected this year.

The poultry department was good and all kinds and breeds of domestic fowls were shown. Judging from the poultry exhibit it ought not to be any trouble for Anderson county to have one of the best poultry associations in the state.

LOWNESVILLE WILL HAVE CHAUTAUQUA

Lowndesville, Oct. 20.—The citizens of Lowndesville have made arrangements with the Radcliffe Bureau of Washington, D. C., to furnish the attractions for a three days festival and chautauqua to be held October 27th through the 29th. At a meeting of the committee last night an election of officers was gone into with the following results: Chairman of the club, Mr. R. H. Mosley, vice president, T. B. Jones; secretary and treasurer, T. D. Cooley. Several committees were appointed by the chairman, and later it was announced that the committee on speakers had invited the following to speak for the morning exercises: Dr. D. W. Daniel, head of English Department of Clemson College, first day; Dr. John E. White, of Anderson, second day; Col. O. R. Horton, president of Georgia Military Academy, Milledgeville, Ga., third day. This day is to be a town booster's day, and plans are on foot to get all the former citizens of the town back on that day that can possibly come.

The members of the committee have entered into the chautauqua with a great deal of enthusiasm, and every effort is being made to have the three biggest days in Lowndesville's history. Not only will there be lectures and instruction, but the Radcliffe Bureau promises to have the very highest kind of amusement. There have been two ticket selling teams appointed with R. H. Mosley captaining the Reds and T. B. Jones leading the Blues. A great deal of interest has already been aroused over the contest, and the members have already agreed that the losing team will perform a stunt on the stage the first night of the chautauqua.

Lowndesville is waking up to her opportunity and the whole town is getting in behind this movement. An effort is going to be made especially to cooperate with the farmers of the community in order to get in closer touch with them, and it is for this reason that the first day of the chautauqua is to be an agricultural rally, and Dr. D. W. Daniel, the eloquent speaker of Clemson College has been invited. In the midst of the finest farming land in the state, Lowndesville is taking advantage of her opportunities.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But, brooding at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is speedily for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge of soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and

CONFERENCE MEETS ON FRIDAY EVENING

SUPT. SWEARINGEN WILL BE AMONG THOSE PRESENT

FOUR COUNTIES

Pickens, Oconee, Greenville and Anderson Will Be Well Represented.

Mr. J. B. Felton, county superintendent of education, yesterday stated that in all probability State Supt. J. E. Swearingen would be in Anderson Friday afternoon and Saturday to attend the meeting of the high school teachers from Oconee, Pickens, Greenville and Anderson counties, which is to be held in the auditorium at Anderson college. Prof. W. H. Hand, state inspector of schools, will also be here and will have charge of the conference, it having been called at his suggestion.

Mr. Felton talked with Mr. Swearingen over the telephone yesterday and the former stated that he was making preparations to attend the conference. He will likely make an address as will also Prof. Hand and Dr. James P. Kinard, president of Anderson college. In addition talks will be made by the superintendents of education in the four counties represented, and the teachers will also discuss the problems that confront them daily.

There will be a session of the conference Friday evening and also two sessions Saturday, one in the forenoon and one in the afternoon. It is not thought that the circus being in the city Friday and the show at the Anderson theatre will effect the attendance. Those in charge of the conference urge all of the high school teachers in the district to attend. This meeting is an important one and much good will be derived.

The Murphys Have Moved.
(New York Times.)

"The Murphy family has moved from their summer home into their steam-heated apartment."
"This is not a society item, but Headkeeper Bill Snyder's method of announcing to his hayhouse friends that the hippopotamus family has moved from the tank inclosure in the zoo in Central Park to the lionhouse for the winter. The move was made necessary because of the sudden drop in temperature."

The change was made in the early morning and before there were many visitors. A temporary runway was constructed from the open air corral to the lionhouse and through this Mrs. Murphy's husband, Calip II, and the baby marched.
Mrs. Murphy led her family, as usual, Snyder said. Her mate followed and baby hippo brought up the rear. There was not the slightest trouble and the transfer was accomplished in seven minutes. Mrs. Murphy was so glad to get back to her old home that she slid into the tank with a splash that woke the lions to vocal protest.

Must Know Him.
In a French-Canadian village there is one hotel and it is the headquarters of the community life, says the London Chronicle. On the first night of the trip the guide came to us after supper.
"You came from New York hey?"
"Yes."
"You know Adolphe Desjardins?"
"No."
"You do not know Adolphe Desjardins?"
"No."
"Mon Dieu, you must know him! He is the cook in the hotel!"

When Baby Has the Croup. When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every drop, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. For sale by all dealers.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came to Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Cañon, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my back."

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After

I had gotten so weak, I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 20 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write for Cardui's Medical Co. (Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and test book. Name and address on envelope.)
